

COURSE Number: SYS321
COURSE Title: Pneumatology

I. Course Description:

This course explores the Person and Work of the Holy Spirit: A scriptural and practical presentation of the nature, personality, gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit. Students will learn how to practically assess, value and function in the gifts. This class will involve academic as well as practical training.

II. Course Prerequisites: (Students must complete all prerequisites before registration will be allowed)

There are no academic prerequisites for this course. Enrollment is open to any registered student.

III. Course Objectives:

- A. To understand the teaching of the work of the Holy Spirit.
- B. To inculcate a reverence for the person and the work of the Holy Spirit.
- C. To understand the relevancy of the person of the Holy Spirit to contemporary life.
- D. To discuss in candor and faith the difficulties that surround modern teaching of the Holy Spirit.

IV. Course Method:

Method of delivery is either by lecture for Resident Students, reading and reporting, or CD/DVD, if applicable, for Distance Learning and independent study students.

V. Course Requirements:

- A. Read each text thoroughly.
- B. Write a Book Review for each required textbook as outlined in material in your Welcome Packet.
- C. Write a Research Paper as outlined in the material inside your Welcome Packet.
- D. Submit all completed assignments at one time via e-mail, if at all possible to assigned Program Director/Mentor or Instructor. Refer to your Welcome Packet for emailing documents.

VI. Required Materials:

Students must obtain and read, listen to or view (as appropriate) all required materials.

Book Report/Book Review must be completed according to the format indicated below.

Distance Learning/Independent Study students must purchase audio copies of required lectures

- A. The Holy Spirit: A Comprehensive Study of the Person and Work of the Holy Spirit. John F. Walvoord. ISBN#0310340616
- B. The Person and Work of the Holy Spirit. R.A. Torrey. 2007. Cosimo Classics. ISBN#1602097716

Notes: Textbooks not from Logos can be purchased through www.amazon.com (they have excellent savings on used books) or www.christianbook.com Both are excellent sources for purchasing textbooks.

VII. Book Reviews and Research Papers:

Refer to your Welcome Packet for detailed instructions on how to write Book Reviews and Research Papers.

VIII. Course Instructor:

The Course Instructor will be listed in this section when a course is being taught in a classroom setting. Details such as name, phone number, e-mail address, office, etc. will be included here.

Course Number: THE362
Course Title: Apologetics

I. Course Description:

This course provides a study of the defense of the faith, particularly from the standpoint of the authority of the Bible and historical evidences of the resurrection of Jesus Christ

II. Course Prerequisites: (Students must complete all prerequisites before registration will be allowed)

There are no academic prerequisites for this course. Enrollment is open to any registered student.

III. Course Objectives:

- A. To equip the student in defending the truth of the Christian worldview.
- B. To strengthen the faith of the student by showing that his faith rests on a firm foundation that can be defended logically.
- C. To enable the student to develop his own presentation of the evidence that Jesus of Nazareth is the Son of God.

IV. Course Method:

Method of delivery is either by lecture for Resident Students, reading and reporting, or CD/DVD, if applicable, for Distance Learning and independent study students.

V. Course Requirements:

- A. Read each text thoroughly.
- B. Write a Book Review for each required textbook as outlined in material in your Welcome Packet.
- C. Write a Research Paper as outlined in the material inside your Welcome Packet.
- D. Write a 3-5 page letter to a fictitious individual who has recently come to faith in Christ. They have concerns about the reliability of the Scriptures, and have asked you to explain if you believe them to be the Word of God and why.
- E. Submit all completed assignments at one time via e-mail, if at all possible to assigned Program Director/Mentor or Instructor. Refer to your Welcome Packet for emailing documents.

VI. Required Materials:

Students must obtain and read, listen to or view (as appropriate) all required materials.

Book Report/Book Review must be completed according to the format indicated below.

Distance Learning/Independent Study students must purchase audio copies of required lectures

- A. The New Evidence that Demands a Verdict. Josh McDowell. 1999. Thomas Nelson Pubs. ISBN#0785242198
- B. The Case for Christ, Lee Strobel

Notes: Textbooks not from Logos can be purchased through www.amazon.com (they have excellent savings on used books) or www.christianbook.com Both are excellent sources for purchasing textbooks.

VII. Book Reviews and Research Papers:

Refer to your Welcome Packet for detailed instructions on how to write Book Reviews and Research Papers.

VIII. Course Instructor:

The Course Instructor will be listed in this section when a course is being taught in a classroom setting. Details such as name, phone number, e-mail address, office, etc. will be included here.